Responsive Technology Partners to Host “The Hospitality Shift” Live Panel Event at State Farm Arena June 30, 2025

ATLANTA, GA — June 9, 2025 — Responsive Technology Partners is pleased to announce The Hospitality Shift: Tackling Tomorrow's Challenges Today, a live and virtual panel discussion designed for hospitality leaders who are navigating today's rapidly changing restaurant and lodging landscape.

Taking place on Monday, June 30, 2025, from 8:00 AM to 10:30 AM at State Farm Arena in Atlanta, this in-person event will also be available via live stream for remote attendees. A complimentary breakfast will be served to all in-person guests beginning at 8:00 AM.

This timely event will bring together operational, financial, and technology experts for a high-level conversation focused on the evolving needs of hospitality businesses in 2025.

Confirmed Panelists Include:

- Mark W. Landes, VP of Technology, Snooze A.M. Eatery
- Jonathan Edwards, Manager of Professional Services, QSR Automations
- Michael Stone, VP of Hospitality IT, Responsive Technology Partners
- Cal Evans, Senior Director of Market Intelligence & Analytics, Synovus
- Moderator: Tom Glover, Chief Revenue Officer, Responsive Technology Partners

Panelists will explore:

- Strategies for simplifying restaurant IT and vendor management
- Real-world approaches to kitchen and service-side operational efficiency
- How to use data to improve guest satisfaction and bottom-line performance
- Economic trends and capital flow insights that impact hospitality growth and development

Tom Glover, CRO Responsive Technology Partners

“As operators face margin pressures, rising complexity, and shifting guest expectations, the need for strategic clarity is greater than ever,” said Tom Glover, CRO of Responsive Technology Partners. “This event is about bringing together people who live and breathe hospitality and offering tangible, executive-level insight into what’s working and where the industry is headed.”
